Two Friends

Jody and Chris were best friends. But they were very different. One day they were walking through the woods. They saw a cave. They never had noticed it before. Jody wanted to explore it right away. Chris said it would be better if they came back with flash lights so they could see where they were going.

The Dancing Frog

One summer day, a frog named Fred was sitting on a rock in his pond. He looked across the pond and saw a new frog. This frog was dancing from lily pad to lily pad. He was having a lot of fun all by himself.

Fred left his rock and swam over to meet the dancing frog. "Would you teach me how to dance?" he asked.

Dan, the dancing frog, said he would be glad to teach his new friend how to dance. It was easy!

The two new friends spent the afternoon dancing together all around the pond.
